TRACES OF CULTURE AND FAITH

Stories of this remarkable land

Jordan fascinates not only with its landscapes, but also with centuries-old religious traditions.

Mount Nebo • Moses

Particularly in the Torah and Christian tradition, Mount Nebo is regarded as the place where Moses looked out over the Promised Land. The Dead Sea and Jordan Valley can be seen from the mountain. This is a religious tradition, not conclusive historical evidence.

Jabal Harun • Aaron

Jabal Harun, associated with Aaron, the brother of Moses, is near Petra, not on Mount Nebo. The shrine at its summit plays an important role in local religious traditions. The climb is not included.

Dead Sea region • Lot

The story of Lot and his people appears in Islamic and other Abrahamic traditions. Local traditions connect some places south of the Dead Sea with this story. Views differ on their exact locations.

The meaning of the journey

During our visits, our guide will share more about these stories. Discover how faith, history and geography come together here.

08 FEBRUARY • DAY 3

Petra • Wadi Rum

From Nabataean rock-cut architecture to the silence of the red desert.

Morning • The ancient city of Petra

Walk through the Siq to the famous Treasury (Al-Khazneh). With our guide, discover the Nabataean civilisation and its impressive rock-cut architecture.

Afternoon • Wadi Rum

Private transfer from Petra to Wadi Rum. Check in at the luxury camp and take time to relax.

Evening • Bedouin meal and stars

A traditional Zarb meal, cooked underground. Weather permitting, admire the starry sky above the desert.

STAY: Wadi Rum • Luxury camp | A bubble stay is planned for special guest Ramazan Bayram
